G-Mobile becomes the official internet service provider of the 2017 American Days Expo

ULAANBAATAR, MONGOLIA - The fourth annual American Days Expo, co-hosted by AmCham Mongolia and the United States Embassy in Ulaanbaatar, will take place on September 16 and 17, at Misheel Expo Center. AmCham Mongolia is pleased to announce that G-Mobile, a leading telecommunications entity in Mongolia, will be the official internet service provider of the Expo.

G-Mobile provides nationwide cellular services to over 500,000 customers through its 3.99G network in Ulaanbaatar, Darkhan, and Erdenet, 21 provinces in Mongolia, and 80 soums, keeping 80% of Mongolia's territory connected through its 2G and 3.99G network.

Through its continuous innovation and advanced technology, G-Mobile provides its customers with high-speed fiber optic cable internet service for organizations and individuals, pre-paid and post-paid services, G-Internet Service, unlimited data plans, and G-Internet phone service.

American Days Expo is organized every year to showcase U.S. products and services available to the public, and to build awareness about companies in Mongolia that are offering leading expertise and technology. Since its inception, participation in the expo has grown significantly, growing from 50 exhibitors in 2014 to over 90 exhibitors in 2016. The Expo's organizers anticipate the return of satisfied veteran exhibitors and look forward to welcoming new ones, and expect many more visitors to attend this year.
